DATE OF REPORT: 05/09/2017
SUPPLEMENT #27 - REVIEW OF VIDEO

1. On May 5, 2017, the Missouri State Highway Patrol's Division of Drug and Crime Control, Troop E Unit, was activated to investigate an in custody death at the Mississippi County Jail in Charleston, Missouri.
2. On May 9, 2017, at approximately 1515 hours, I Corporal N. H. McDaniel, received a copy of surveillance footage from Mississippi County Deputy Branden Caid, during an interview conducted at the Sikeston Department of Public Safety. I reviewed the surveillance footage from the hallway of the jail area from May 5, 2017. The footage was from the time Tory Sanders entered the Mississippi County Jail until approximately 2300 hours. There is no audio with the footage. The footage revealed the following:
 - a) At approximately 1014 hours, Sanders was escorted into the jail through the lobby by Charleston Department of Public Safety Officer Zachary Matney and Mississippi County Jailer Bobby Coleman. Sanders was handcuffed behind his back. Officer Matney then removed Sanders' handcuffs in the booking area of the jail, and Jailer Coleman secured Sanders' belt that Sanders removed from his pants. Sanders' picture was taken at 1017 hours, by Jailer Faith Altamirano, and was placed in cell 120 by Jailer Coleman.
 - b) At 1022 hours, Officer Matney talks to Sanders through the cell door. Officer Matney then leaves at 1023 hours. At 1033 hours, Jailer Coleman talked to Sanders for approximately 30 seconds. At 1057 hours, and 1059 hours, Jailer Coleman again spoke with Sanders briefly at the cell door.
 - c) At 1100 hours, Sanders exits his cell and Jailer Coleman escorts Sanders to the booking area. Sanders sits in a chair while information is apparently being entered into a computer by Jailer Altamirano. At 1102 hours, Sanders got up from his chair and washed his hands in the booking area and returned to his chair. At 1107 hours, Sanders was escorted back to cell 120 by Jailer Coleman. Sanders was given a blanket. At 1158 hours, Sanders was given a food tray by Jailer Coleman through the chuck hole.
 - d) At 1204 hours, T. J. Feeler of Bootheel Counseling Services arrives and interviews Sanders through the chuck hole until 1220 hours. At 1254 hours, Jailer Coleman appears to speak with Sanders briefly before he exits the jail and goes into the lobby.
 - e) At 1308 hours, janitor Kenneth Ritch speaks with Sanders until 1310 hours. At 1335 hours, 1351 hours, and at 1409 hours, Jailer Coleman again spoke to Sanders briefly through the chuck hole. At 1413 hours, Jailer Altamirano spoke with Sanders. She began pointing at Sanders while speaking with him and closed the chuck hole. At 1414 hours, Jailers Coleman and Altamirano again spoke to Sanders through the door. At 1431 hours, Jailer Connie Simmons briefly spoke with Sanders before exiting into the lobby. Jailers Coleman and Altamirano spoke with Sanders from 1440 hours, until 1450 hours.

- f) At 1509 hours, Charleston Officer Matney returns to the jail and speaks with Sanders until 1512 hours. At 1514 hours, Jailer Altamirano spoke with Sanders for approximately one minute. At approximately 1544 hours, Deputy Branden Caid speaks with Sanders and appears to let Sanders speak on Deputy Caid's cellular telephone through the jail door. While Deputy Caid was speaking with Sanders, T. J. Feeler from Bootheel Counseling Services returned to the jail at approximately 1602 hours. At 1603 hours, Charleston Officer Matney also returned to the jail.
- g) At 1605 hours, Deputy Caid, T. J. Feeler, Officer Matney, Jailers Altamirano, and Coleman left the cell area and talked in the booking area. At approximately 1606 hours, Deputy Caid returned to the cell and spoke with Sanders. At 1610 hours, Deputy Caid and Officer Matney appear to let Sanders talk on a cellular telephone again. Officer Matney stands at the cell with the cellular telephone, and he and Sanders appear to be speaking to someone until 1616 hours. At this point, Sanders is holding the cellular telephone through the viewing window until 1628 hours. During this time, Officer Matney and Deputy Caid also speak with Sanders several times. At 1631 hours, Deputy Caid leaves the jail and enters the lobby. At 1635 hours, Officer Matney and Mr. Feeler exit the jail and enter the lobby.
- h) At 1644 hours, Jail Administrator Sally Yanez and Officer Matney speak with Sanders at his cell. At 1646 hours, Jailers Coleman and Altamirano give Sanders food through the chuck hole, and all leave the area of the cell. At 1646 hours, Sanders reaches out of the cell several times. No one is around the cell area.
- i) At 1718 hours, Jailer Coleman briefly talks to Sanders as he is exiting the jail into the lobby. At 1725 hours, Sanders briefly talks to Transport Officer Henry Sager. At 1736, Jailer Josh Maldonado bangs on Sanders' cell door with his fist, begins talking to Sanders and pointing his finger. At 1742 hours, Jailer Maldonado shines a flashlight in Sanders cell then leaves the area.
- j) At 1746 hours, Linda Dixon talks to Sanders briefly as she exits to the lobby. At 1747 hours, Jailers Maldonado and Decota McGlothlin are in front of Sanders' cell. Jailer Maldonado produces a Taser and removes the cartridge. It appears Jailer Maldonado puts the Taser through the chuck hole, and Sanders attempts to grab the Taser, or Maldonado. Jailers Maldonado and McGlothlin then attempt to push open the cell door. Jailer Altamirano enters the area at 1748 hours, and begins to kick the cell door in an attempt to assist in entering Sander's cell. Jailer McGlothlin exits the area into the lobby. After Jailer Altamirano kicked the door, she exits the area into the main jail corridor to retrieve keys. She returns within a minute, opens the chuck hole, and deploys a Taser into the cell through the chuck hole. At 1749 hours, Jailers Joe Ross and McGlothlin enter the area from the lobby. At this time, Jailer Ross obtains a Taser from Altamirano and deploys it into the cell. Jailer Ross gives the Taser back to Jailer Altamirano to reload and gets it back. During this time, Sanders puts a dark colored blanket and a blue tee shirt over the chuck hole. Jailer McGlothlin pulls the items away from the chuck hole and Sanders.

- k) At 1750 hours, Jailer Maldonado puts a Taser in the chuck hole and removes it. Sanders then appears to throw a liquid out of the chuck hole at the jailers. Jailer Ross stands back from the cell and points a Taser at the chuck hole. At 1751 hours, Jailer Ross is the only jailer in camera view. Jailer Altamirano exited to the lobby. Jailer Maldonado went to the booking area and Jailer McGlothlin went to the control area of the jail. Jailer Maldonado returns to the area in less than a minute. Jailers Altamirano and McGlothlin are back and forth from different areas. Dispatcher Lyndsay Witherspoon enters the area from the lobby at this time reporting for work.
- l) At 1753 hours, Jailer Ross put the Taser in the chuck hole again and pulls it out. At 1754 hours, the Nurse, Emily Brown arrives and walks to the booking area. At 1755 hours, it appears Sanders throws liquid out of the cell again. Nurse Brown, Jailers Ross, Altamirano, and Maldonado were present in front of the cell. Jailer McGlothlin also enters the area and everyone puts on black exam gloves. Nurse Brown appears to be talking to the jailers near the cell. At 1756 hours, Jailers Ross and Altamirano exit the area. Jailer Ross gives his Taser to Nurse Brown. Jailer Maldonado is still near the cell.
- m) At 1757 hours, Jailers Ross, McGlothlin, and Altamirano return. Ross and McGlothlin are wearing protective vests. Nurse Brown gives Jailer Maldonado, Ross's Taser. Maldonado returns the Taser to Ross. Jailer Ross begins to talk to Sanders through the cell door. Nurse Brown begins recording with her cellular telephone. At 1759 hours, Jailer Ross returns the Taser to Jailer Maldonado. Also, Dispatcher Diane N. Sinks leaves the sheriff's office at this time.
- n) At 1801 hours, Mississippi County Sheriff's Deputy Ryan Hill entered the jail and began speaking with Sanders at his cell. Deputy Hill turns away from the cell, speaks with the jailers, and puts on a pair of black exam gloves. Jailer Altamirano has leg restraints in her hand. Jailer Altamirano also gives her Taser to Nurse Brown. Jailer Altamirano then put the leg restraints into a storage closet across from Sanders' cell. Jailer Altamirano then receives handcuffs from Jailer Maldonado. At 1806 hours, Deputy Hill, Jailer Ross, and Jailer McGlothlin are at the cell door. Jailer Maldonado gives Jailer Ross a Taser. At 1807 hours, Jailer Maldonado uses the jail keys to open the chuck hole again. As soon at the chuck hole opens, everyone jumped. Sanders appeared to take the keys from the lock. Jailers Ross and Altamirano attempt to use another set of keys to open the cell door. Deputy Hill closes the chuck hole. At 1808 hours, Deputy Hill, Jailer's Ross, McGlothlin, and Altamirano get the cell door open slightly and attempt to enter the cell. It appears Sanders is pushing on the door from the other side. Jailer Ross appears to get struck in the face and the door closes. Deputy Hill and the jailers stand near the door and talk.
- o) At 1811 hours, Charleston Department of Public Safety Officer Curtis Arnold enters the jail and gives his Mace to Deputy Hill. Officers Henson and Matney also enter the jail. Officer James Williams opened the door, looked in, and left the jail. At 1812 hours, Deputy Hill deployed Mace into the cell. Everyone appears to begin coughing and moving around. Nurse Brown appears to still be videoing with a cellular telephone. At 1814 hours, Nurse Brown speaks with Sanders through the jail door. At 1816 hours, Dispatcher Witherspoon brings Nurse Brown a cup of water while she is near the cell. At 1817 hours, Jailer Ross appears with a shield and riot helmet along with Jailer

McGlothlin. They walk in front of Sanders' cell several times. At 1819 hours, Jailer Ross has removed his helmet and speaks to Sanders at the cell door. At 1820 hours, Jailer McGlothlin got a cellular telephone from Nurse Brown and continues recording. Nurse Brown goes to the booking area. At 1821 hours, Jailer Ross returned to the cell to speak with Sanders. Officer Henson also speaks with Sanders. At 1823 hours, Jailer McGlothlin walks to the booking area with the cellular telephone. From 1823 hours, until 1828 hours, no contact was made with Sanders. At 1828 hours, Deputy Hill looks in Sanders' cell and appears to speak to him for a short time. At 1831 hours, Officer Arnold appears to speak with Sanders until 1836 hours. Jailer Ross then speaks with Sanders and Officer Henson held a cellular telephone up to the viewing port until 1839 hours. At 1845 hours, Jailer Joe Ross looks into Sanders' cell briefly and has his riot helmet in his hand. Jailer McGlothlin has his helmet on. From 1846 hours, until 1851 hours, Jailer Ross or Officer Henson were at Sanders cell, and appeared to be speaking with him. Also at 1851 hours, Jail Administrator Sally Yanez entered the jail and went to the booking area. At 1854 hours, Jail Administrator Sally Yanez appears to speak with Sanders at the cell for approximately one minute. At one point while speaking with Sanders, Yanez claps her hands and waives them back and forth in the air. At 1858 hours, Jail Administrator Yanez and Jailer Ross exit the jail and enter the lobby. Officer Arnold and Jailer Maldonado also exit the jail and enter the lobby.

- p) At 1900 hours, Officers Henson, Matney, and Jailers Altamirano, and McGlothlin exit the jail and go into the lobby.
